

Open Invitation - VECO Online Guest Event Bright Futures and You!

With Harris van Beek, Eric Sidoti and Friends
May 3 - 26, 2000

The VECO community invites you to join with them in this exciting upcoming online guest event!

Eric and Harris will give insight into the recently released
Green Paper on school to work transition written by the Australian Student Traineeship Foundation

Bright Futures for Young Australians

Which addresses how we as a nation can improve our capacity to equip and support young people as they move to adulthood

Visit the website for more information <http://www.veco.ash.org.au/guest>

To participate you need:

- An email address so you can receive the messages that form the discussion and contribute your own
- Occasional access to the World Wide Web so that you can follow up any online references in the discussion
- Ability to read Adobe Acrobat PDF files - the Acrobat reader is free and is accessible from the VECO website

What is VECO

VECO is Vocational Education Community Online, a national online network for those involved in VET in Schools with a particular emphasis on coordinators of structured workplace learning programs. A regular feature of VECO is the online guest program and this is a very special event in that program.
